

Year 2 Homework 14.3.19

Focus area: Science

Next week we will be having a science investigation day, where we will using our knowledge of material and their properties.

Your homework: Please spend some time discussing and looking at different materials around the home and outside. Remember how materials change and how they can be adapted for different uses. Have fun!

Year 2 Homework 14.3.19

Focus area: Science

Next week we will be having a science investigation day, where we will using our knowledge of material and their properties.

Your homework: Please spend some time discussing and looking at different materials around the home and outside. Remember how materials change and how they can be adapted for different uses. Have fun!

