Dear Parents,

Year 1 Marble Day- Wednesday 10th December

The children have worked extremely hard throughout the Autumn term to impress the adults not only in Year 1, but also across the school, and they have successfully earned all 50 of their class marbles. Marbles are awarded in many different ways—showing great teamwork, being kind to one another, impressing adults as a whole class, and for many other positive reasons. Once the children collect all 50 marbles, they earn a Marble Day: a special day where we step away from the usual curriculum and celebrate with fun activities chosen by the children.

After lots of discussion, the children have decided they would like a Christmas-themed Marble Day, including:

- Dressing up in whatever they choose – Christmas jumpers, pyjamas, fancy dress, or their own clothes
- Marshmallow toasting
- Enjoying a Christmas film with hot chocolate
- Decorating gingerbread men
- Christmas colouring activities

For Marble Day, please ensure the school has the most up-to-date information regarding any allergies. All food items provided will be vegetarian and halal.

We are so looking forward to celebrating Marble Day with 1OB and 1ED. They more than deserve it, and it will be a wonderful way to finish another fantastic half term in Year 1!

Regards

The Year 1 Team
