Reception Class – MARBLE DAY

Dear Parents and Carers,

Our reception children have worked incredibly hard this term. We are delighted to share that both classes have filled their marble jars with all 50 marbles, which means they have earned their very first MARBLE DAY!

Marble Day is a special celebration where the children choose how they would like to enjoy their reward and celebrate all of their fantastic effort.

Our first Marble Day will take place on Thursday 18th December, and the children have chosen an exciting...

“Cosy Pyjama Day!”

Here are some of the fun activities the children have said they would like to enjoy:

- Hot chocolate with marshmallows
- Playing games
- Dancing
- Creating their own cinema
- Watching a cosy Christmas film
- Bringing a teddy (please ensure it is named)
- Festive activities, including making magic reindeer food
- Baking Christmas mince pies

Children are welcome to come to school in their pyjamas (and indoor slippers if they wish). If they would prefer, they are more than welcome to wear their usual clothes instead.

We are very excited to celebrate our first Marble Day together!

Thank you for your continued support,

The Reception Class Team
